Chace Seeks Re-Election

Endorsed by every mayor and a host of civic and religious leaders in his district, Burton W. Chace today announced that he will be a candidate to succeed himself as county supervisor of the Fourth District in the June primary election.

Chace said he will file his nominating petition with the County Registrar of Voters, Benjamin S. Hite, tomorrow.

The undivided support given Chace by the community leaders is a repetition of his successful election in 1954 when he received the largest vote of any supervisor seeking re-election that year.
